A well authenticated rumor has it that the L. & N. railroad will shortly discontinue its Jellico road traffic, thus practically shutting the coal output of that region out from this section.

Theodore Wesley, who was interested in the drug business with F. M. Ware at McKinney, has bought M. C. Williams' interest in M. C. & D. N. Williams' drug store at Mt. Vernon.

A post-office inspector sent to Irvine, has recommended the removal of Postmaster Bert Powell. The new appointee, not yet named, will make the third postmaster appointed for Irvine during this administration.

W. B. Whitehead, of Rockcastle, has a white oak stump on his place 23 years old, which is growing, notwithstanding it has neither leaf nor limb. The diameter is two inches greater than when measured nearly a fourth of a century ago.

The Diamond Coal Company, a private corporation, operating and doing business at East Bernstadt, Laurel county, has terminated by the voluntary act of its stock holders and will wind up its affairs.

The Bauer Cooperage Company has recently closed a deal with Ewell & Smith, of London, whereby the former secures all the timber on about 15,000 acres of land lying in Laurel county, at a cost of about $30,000. This is regarded as a magnificent belt of timber.

Jeff Bardine, charged with wounding Dan Pointer, of Pulaski county, was lodged in jail at Somerset. The gun was loaded with large duck shot, and several balls entered the body and head of Pointer, whose condition is very serious. The wounds will probably prove fatal. An old feud caused the row.

The Ashland, O., Press says that the Hayesville Mills were burned, "causing a great loss to James McKechnie, the owner, as the mill was insured for about two-thirds of its value and he had about $1,200 worth of grain and flour in the mill at this unfortunate time, which was not insured. It is also a great loss to our community, for under the management of Mr. McKechnie the mill was doing splendid work and the former custom was being rapidly established. Mr. McKechnie thinks of rebuilding again and he is assured of the full support of the citizens of this place in re-establishing this business which is a great convenience to our people, who will make an effort in keeping such worthy citizens as Mr. McKechnie and family in our midst." Mr. McK. formerly lived in Wayne county and is a good friend of this paper, which regrets to hear of his loss.

Shaw and Miss Nettie Coulter.—Mr. John S. Smith, of Paris, and Miss Annie M. Bradley, who has been connected with the Kentucky School for the Deaf for a number of years, were married yesterday in a pretty ceremony by Prof. George T. Schofield. Both of the principals are mutes and the ceremony was in the sign language.—Advocate.

The INTERIOR JOURNAL is enabled by the courtesy of the lady herself to make a very interesting announcement. Mrs. Ellen Letcher Owsley, of Lancaster, relict of the lamented Judge Mike Owsley, will, on the evening of the 15th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Cook, become the wife of Hon. John Will Poor, a wealthy, popular and excellent citizen of Garrard county. Rev. Owsley Goodloe, of Harrodsburg, will perform the ceremony, which will be witnessed only by the children and a few friends. The prospective bride is a lovely woman both in appearance and manners and has legions of friends, who will unite in good wishes for her happiness. Mr. Poor was one of her husband's best friends and did as much as any man to advance him politically and otherwise, consequently there is a warm feeling for him by all the family. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Poor will go to his handsome home in his lower Garrard where they will reside.

More recruits wanted for the Philippines. The recruiting officer in Lexington has just received instructions from the war department to enlist a number of white men for infantry cavalry and artillery service in the Philippines. These men will be sent to San Francisco at once to connect with steamship sailing the latter part of this month. Now is the chance for you to make a trip around the world. This opportunity will only last a few days and men wanting to join should apply at the recruiting offices in Lexington, Ky., or in Ashland, or in Somerset, at once.

The decision of Mr. W. P. Walton to continue his work on the INTERIOR JOURNAL, and not to retire from journalism, which he had in contemplation, will be received with sincere pleasure by every newspaper man who knows him as a gentleman always, an editor in his sphere without a superior in intellect and judgment, and as the owner of the fairest, most industriously and conscientiously conducted newspaper in Kentucky. His retirement would have occasioned as profound regret as would have attended that of any editor on the provincial press of the State and it pleases The Courier thus to testify.—Dr. John D. Woods in Bowling Green Courier.

The large store room on Brook Street, adjacent to J. T. Burghard company's carpet house, has been fitted up for this purpose. Evangelist B. Helm, who is well known among christian people, has been made superintendent and will have an office and headquarters at this place. The mission will be known as "The Rest" and there will be services three times Sundays and on Tuesday and Thursday and Saturday nights.—Louisville Dispatch.

Dr. J. P. Greene has declined to accept the presidency of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville. In his letter of declination he says: So far as my poor soul is to discern the leadings of the Lord, it's my duty to remain with William Jewell College. I have considered both sides of the question. The peace of Southern Baptists seems to depend on my accepting the call, and the welfare of this institution seems to depend on my remaining here. I can not go into details in this note, but will simply say that this college is so deeply rooted in my heart and its future so dependent on my devotion to it that I can not believe God wants me to leave it.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

The condition of Richard P. Bland is improved and there is still much hope for Free Silver Dick.

Jess so. If you believe in the rule of the political machine run by a few bosses about the county seats, stay at home on June 17th, and they will select the men for you to vote for in November.—Glasgow News.

Chief of Police Haager has sworn out warrants against Allen R. Carter, A. S. Dietzman and others, of the Louisville Dispatch, for criminal libel, because the paper charged that he was under obligations to the pool rooms and therefore wouldn't close them.

The big row over Fayette's delegation to the State democratic convention has been settled, and the 20 votes will be divided between Goebel, Stone and Hardin on first ballot and after that it will be controlled by the Goebel men, who, it is said, will have at least 15 of the delegation.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and power will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store.

LANCASTER.

The people are favorable to the water works, E. W. Harris having procured over 40 subscribers for home consumption.

J. W. Miller's fast mare, Nora L., is in training at Lexington and, being in good condition, she is expected to make a profitable tour. She will start at Saginaw, Mich., on July 10.

It is reported that Mr. Jno. W. Poor, one of Garrard's most popular citizens, and Mrs. Ellen Letcher Owsley, widow of Judge M. H. Owsley, will be married on Thursday evening by Rev. W. O. Goodloe at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Cook. The parties are highly connected and well-known in Central Kentucky.

Uncle Clabe Lear, aged 93 years, is quite ill. The friends of Mr. Joseph R. McClary regret to hear of his illness. The family of Dr. I. S. Wesley has returned from Middleburg. Dr. J. B. Kinnaird has returned from Columbus, O., where he attended the medical association. Elder George Gowen was at home for a few days.

Capt. Wm. Herndon was recently the victim of the most piercing repartee. Mr. Bookout had called at the captain's office several times for legal advice. On one occasion the captain said: "Mr. Bookout, do you want to employ a lawyer?" Bookout replied that he did not and left the office. Recently the captain met Mr. B. and asked him several questions in reference to the culture of strawberries, whereupon the latter, with peculiar emphasis, said, "Captain, do you want to employ a gardener?" The captain has lost his taste for strawberries.

The district W. C. T. U. convention held in Berea on the 5th, 6th and 7th was the most successful yet held, having in attendance about 60 delegates and visitors, among whom being two State presidents, Mesdames Rounds, of Chicago, Ill., of National reputation, and Frances E. Beauchamp, of this State; two or three district presidents, and the State officer and superintendent of Flower Missions, Mrs. M. W. Bender, of Louisville. Twelve delegates attended from this place, several of whom took prominent parts on the program and read very interesting papers; among whom were Mrs. G. M. Patterson, district president, Mrs. R. L. Elkin corresponding secretary and Miss Amanda Anderson, a well written paper, on the flourishing condition of the W. C. T. U., of this city. Other delegates were Mesdames J. Joseph, T. Gresham, J. H. West, M. K. Kirby, M. K. Gill and Misses Cora Ward, Lou and Ida Grant and Lewis Gill. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. G. M. Patterson, president; Vice President, Mrs. Sue Woodcock, of Danville; Recording Secretary, Mrs. L. L. Pickett, Wilmore; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Amanda Anderson, Lancaster; Treasurer, Mrs. A. S. Ward, Livingston. A very entertaining declamatory contest was held Wednesday evening in which Miss Ida Tyree, of Pittsburg, won the grand gold medal.

Being very profitably engaged in another part of the State, Gen. P. W. Hardin did not fill his appointment here last Saturday, but, at his request, Hon. Robert Harding, the able, eloquent and fascinating advocate of democracy, filled the engagement in a very acceptable manner. He was presented by Senator Farris as this country's son-in-law. He said that a divided party was the cause of the defeat of Hardin, Blackburn and Bryan, although 20,000 more votes were cast for Hardin than for any other democratic candidate for governor. He claimed that, if we refused to support Mr. Hardin because he was defeated, the same excuse could be made for refusing to support Bryan and Blackburn. He answered numerous statements that had been made about Gen. Hardin represented him as an original free silver advocate and excused him for saying "My Cause," as that manner of expression is as old as Shakespeare, being the people's cause, advocated by him. He said that Goebel and Stone had not been in the free silver ranks long enough to be familiar with the vernacular of its advocates: that when Hardin was advocating the cause, Goebel was predicting that Kentucky would go for Carlisle for president, and that Stone's votes for the reading of the gold bond bill were not in keeping with the votes of free silver leaders, and that they have both been lately converted to the cause of the people. He was glad to have them, but believed that the highest honors should be given first to those who had fought all along the line. It was a logical and forcible speech and a good impression was made. Several went with him to Paint Lick on Saturday night, where he was introduced by Hon. R. H. Tomlinson, and spoke to another large crowd of democrats.

Delighted to know that one of the best editors in the State is not to leave the field where he has been so useful, Long live Walton!—Carlisle Mercury.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JUNE 13, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

THE legislative primary resulted in a victory for Hon. M. F. North by a vote of 12 to 6 over Mr. John H. Miller, the former carrying Crab Orchard, Hustonville and Waynesburg Nos. 1 and 2 and the latter Stanford and Highland. The result was as expected. Mr. North made no fight here, conceding to Mr. Miller his home precincts, which gladly complimented him with their votes. Mr. North had the advantage over Mr. Miller from the fact that many, pleased with his admirable record in the Legislature, had not only insisted on his running again, but promised their votes and influence. Everybody likes "Happy Jack" and hardly a man voted against him who did not hate to do so from purely personal reasons. He is a good man, an unswerving democrat and is not the least sore with Mr. North for having defeated him. "He treated me clean," he said, "and I haven't the slightest fault to find with him. He is a good man or he couldn't have beaten me and I am going to help him to be elected." That's the way a true man and a true democrat always talks and acts. Of the nominee we have often spoken in the highest praise. He made us a most excellent representative and left his impress on the statute books for the good of State and county. He is a fine speaker and a man of courage, and will be able to give reasons on all occasions for the faith that is in him and will turn down anybody the republicans can put up both on the stump and at the polls.

THE fight for instructions for governor in this county will resolve itself into a battle between the so-called politicians and the people. The former are generally for Hardin, simply because he is a district man and his county may be able to advance their interests hereafter—only that and nothing more. They do not claim any great shakes for him, in fact most of them know that either Goebel or Stone would make the best race in the final contest. We believe the Goebel men are in the majority in this county and we trust that every man of them will be here Saturday to assert himself for his favorite and be counted for him. The longest pole knocks the persimmon and the man with the most men in his line will get the instructions. The Stone followers, of whom there are very many, should also be alert. Hardin has fought Capt. Stone relentlessly and unnecessarily and they should see that Hardin gets nothing in this county. We have no axe to grind, but if they are wise in their day and generation they will come over and help us slay the common enemy.

A CONFERENCE of Senator Goebel's leaders was held at Frankfort Friday and the most favorable reports were made to the chief. They think he has the nomination won and judging from other reports also, it looks very much like the gallant young Senator will be made our standard bearer, for which he is so admirably fitted, and for the next four years give the State a clean, honest and aggressive administration, of which even his enemies will be forced to feel proud.

JUDGE R. J. BRECKINRIDGE was here yesterday feeling good over his prospects for the nomination for Attorney General. The Hardin men are disposed to turn him down, but as they are in the minority here as well as elsewhere, we expect to see the able lawyer, clever gentleman and rockribbed democrat nominated. Judge M. C. Sanfley, of his place, is to put him in nomination, and that of itself will be a big send off for him.

TAYLOR continues to swoop his opponents in the gubernatorial derby. He carried Louisville and Jefferson Saturday practically solid, giving him 204 votes, and in all to date, about 500. They won't be able to head him off, it seems, and the chances are that the ignorant individual, who disgraces the office of attorney general, will be the republican standard bearer.

THE penitentiary commissioners are entitled to great praise for getting the institutions on a self-supporting basis. In May, 1898, under republican rule, there was a deficit in the two of about $7,000. In the May just ended a profit to the State of $833 is shown. The comparison makes good campaign material and will be used extensively.

THE primary election yesterday in Louisville was so disorderly and subversive of the people's rights that the committee declared it off but the polls remained open until 7 P. M. and the election proceeded. Jailer Pfaff was jumped upon by seven Whallenites and badly beaten, while there were many and serious rows.

ONLY one of the National Committeemen, the one from Maine, is for dropping the silver issue, and substituting a plank against trusts and imperialism. Every indication is that the battle of 1900 will be fought on the same lines as that of 1896.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

CIRCUIT COURT began yesterday when the following grand jurors were selected and charged by Judge Sanfley, who made the first named foreman: L. R. Jones, S. J. Embury, R. H. Cooper, W. B. Hill, A. A. Warren, Samuel Chandler, Ed Wilkinson, C. L. Hensley, B. C. Sandridge, Wm. Stuart, J. A. Givens and C. F. Epperson.

In addition to a general charge to the grand jury, Judge Sanfley said concerning insurance companies, in substance, that while many indictments had been found against them in the State for combining to fix and maintain rates in particular localities, it was quite clear and so conceded that the indictments could not be maintained under Ch. 101 of the Kentucky Statutes, which forbids pools, trusts and combines. This statute prohibits only combinations and agreements which have for their object the regulating, controlling or fixing the price of merchandise, manufactured articles or property of any kind or in any way limiting the amount of any commodity to be produced, manufactured, mined or bought or sold. If the acts of the insurance companies are inhibited at all, it is by common law and not by statute. If these companies had combined for the purpose of fixing exorbitant rates of insurance, then it may be said that they have violated the common law; but the mere agreement between them to change fixed rates, independently of the question whether the rates were unreasonable, is not, in his opinion, a violation of any law. Insurance companies can agree among themselves on a tariff of rates, and unless this tariff is unreasonable and can be so shown, they should not be indicted. What is an unreasonable charge is a question of fact; and in determining it a jury should consider the character of the risk and every part of the circumstances attending it as well as all legitimate expenses which the companies incur in carrying on their business. In other words, an honest, intelligent and business like view should be taken of every fact which properly enters into the question, what is a fair and reasonable rate of insurance. Jurors should particularly guard themselves against joining in the hue and cry against corporations simply because they are corporations.

The petit jury is as follows: T. J. Hill, B. K. Wearen, Wesley Hughes, Joseph Goode, J. D. Myers, J. M. Hales, J. W. Eubanks, W. T. Saunders, John Bright, G. M. Payne, John Blankenship, R. T. Ballard, O. P. Huffman, Daniel Holman, G. L. Carter, James Brown, J. D. Long, H. P. Long, T. D. Newland, J. H. Rout, C. V. Gentry, R. L. Collier, Frank Riney and Hamilton Boone.

Clarence Hall, being in the penitentiary, the three cases for malicious wounding, breach of peace, &c., were dismissed, as were the three against Wm. Lucas and one against James Gill. Charles Adams, who is in the penitentiary, had two cases dismissed also. A default judgment of $50 was taken against W. H. Traylor for a violation of the liquor laws, but Walter Gilden defended a case of the kind against himself and went acquit. This was the work of the first day.

JONES.—After a six months' illness of cancer of the stomach, Mrs. Jeff Jones' terrible sufferings ended in death at A. M. Saturday at her home in Pineville, aged 38. Deceased was Miss Calien Thurmond, daughter of the late Fielding Thurmond, of this county, and was married to Mr. Jones some 14 years ago. She bore him two children, one dying at the age of 18 months and the other, Edwin, now being 11 years old. Mrs. Jones was a member of the Christian church from girlhood and lived so that when the summons came she could say "I am not afraid to die and meet my Redeemer, and only for my family's sake do I wish to live." The remains were brought here Saturday night and after being kept at the home of Mr. Joe Coffey, whose niece by marriage she was, were taken to Buffalo cemetery Sunday afternoon, followed by a long procession of friends and laid away, after appropriate remarks at the grave by Rev. F. W. Allen. The grief-stricken husband, son and relatives have the sympathy of many friends.

In the precinct conventions here Saturday, R. L. Hubble presided in district No. 1, Stanford, and J. W. Hayden was secretary. B. W. Givens and J. B. Paxton were named as delegates instructed to vote for John H. Miller for representative.

In No. 2, R. G. Denny presided. G. L. Penny was secretary and S. T. Harris chosen as delegate to vote for Miller.

In No. 3, Judge J. P. Bailey presided, W. H. Shanks was made secretary and Harvey Helm chosen delegate and instructed for Miller.

W. H. Dudderar was named as delegate from Stanford No. 4 and instructed for Miller.

Fitzsimmons, who took the laurels from Corbett, has been dethroned by James Johnson Jeffries, the giant son of a preacher of Los Angeles, Cal. At Coney Island he knocked out the hitherto unbeaten champion in 11 rounds, knocking him down again and again and giving the championship to America once more.

Preacher Jeffries, whose son bested Fitzsimmons, said after the fight: "It's just as I said some time ago when I was asked for an expression as to the coming battle; the Lord was in the fight! He was with Jim, and of course Jim won." Mrs. Jeffries was delighted that her son had won and immediately sent the following to him: "I am glad you have won the victory you have worked so hard for. Mother."

The first good roads convention held in Kentucky was held in Lexington for the formation of a State association, and it was a big success. About 300 delegates were present and officers of the association were elected as follows: President, C. M. Hanna, of Shelbyville; Secretary, J. D. Babbage, of Cloverport. Societies will be formed in all counties. A committee was appointed to examine road laws of other States and draft some laws for this State.

There were only about 100 cattle on the market yesterday and the highest price was for a bunch of two-year-old steers, which was 50c. Heifers were quiet at 35 to 36c, butcher stuff 25 to 30c. The horse and mule market was unusually dull.

The first of the new crop of wheat was received at St. Louis Wednesday from Waco, Texas. It graded No. 2 red winter and tested 61 pounds to the bushel. On being auctioned off on change it brought 50 cents a bushel, 15 cents more than cash wheat was quoted.

THE Hardin men are making a still hunt in this county, we learn. Don't be caught napping, but come out and assert your rights.

THE Stone men are much in evidence in this county and if we are not mistaken will show up surprisingly Saturday. Let 'em all come.

THE hotels here, finding that feeding people at 25c for dinner county court days, is a losing business, put up the price to 50c. Capt. Penny, of the St. Asaph, says that May court day he fed 120 people, worked his force almost to death and lost $4 in actual cash.

THE suit of Mrs. Mary Dunn and Mrs. Ellen Embury, of Danville, heirs of the McGee estate, against T. C. Ball for a house and lot and $150, resulted in favor of Ball, who says it cost him 25 cents to beat the case; his attorney, J. S. Owsley, Jr., charging him no fee.

A HEAVY wind, rain and thunder storm came up about midnight Friday. Many trees were blown down, some wheat was thrown and some corn leveled, but the damage was not as great as the tempest indicated. A good rain also fell in some portions of the county Sunday and yesterday was showery.

DIED.-The twins born to Mrs. J. C. Elmore, of Jellico, last week, lived only a short time and their little bodies were brought here by Mr. Elmore Saturday and buried in his lot at Buffalo Spring Cemetery. They were boy and girl and were named Harry and Hattie. If they were to be taken from them, the parents ought to realize that it is much better now than after they had become more greatly attached to them.

In the county court yesterday, the will of Mrs. Nannie C. Powell was probated and J. W. Powell was appointed administrator with the will annexed. J. K. Baughman qualified as guardian for Oscar and W. O. B. Chandler and T. J. Robinson for Margaret and Nellie R. Carpenter and J. B. McKinney qualified as administrator of Phillip Burton. The will of Rena Fisher, a colored woman, was probated. Rev. J. H. Fagaley was authorized to solemnize matrimony.

THE V. A. M. society entertainment at the College in honor of the graduates Friday evening was a largely attended as it proved a very happy affair. The building and the brightly illuminated campus were filled with guests and until the closing hour joy reigned supreme. The members of the society entertained and after all the guests had been presented to the graduates, changed the belles and beaux around so that nearly everybody talked with everybody else during the evening. Refreshments were served in the decorated chapel and everything was done that could conduce to a nice time. A terrible storm came up just as the party broke up, but only a few of the young ladies got their dresses spoiled.

CHICKEN feed wheat for sale cheap. J. H. Baughman & Co.

LOST.-White silk crocheted baby bonnet. Leave at B. K. Wearren & Son's.

LINK LANGFORD was fined 1c and costs for assaulting Edgar Hutchison, a 16 year old boy, who had cursed him.

A GOOD PROPOSITION.-Mr. James Frye, of Hustonville, authorizes us to say that he will give the INTERIOR JOURNAL six months to any one who reads his advertisement in it and says he is not profited that much by buying from him.

SEATS to the elocutionary contest here Friday evening next are going like hot cakes and Messrs. E. H. Beazley and S. W. Menefee, the managers, tell us that the indications are that the house full crowds of former years will be more than discounted. See W. B. McRoberts at once if you would be certain of a seat.

THE BOSS HARKOW.-We are printing some strong endorsements by West End citizens of Tigner's Cyclone Harkow. Nothing is more beneficial to the farming public than an improved, labor saving farm implement and we hope Mr. Tigner will meet with hearty approval wherever he shows his machine. Lincoln county and every other county in the State needs such things.

THE State board of equalization has officially notified County Clerk George B. Cooper of the 15 per cent. raise on real estate and personal property in this county and now the sheriff can go to collecting taxes. With the raise the assessed valuation of lands is $3,543,558 and the personal property $552,061. The town lots, on which there was no raise, are assessed at $885,674, making a total of $4,981,293.

HUTCHISON.-"Uncle Henley" Hutchison, nearly 87, died at Crab Orchard Saturday morning of a complication of troubles after a protracted illness and was buried in Crab Orchard cemetery Sunday afternoon by the Odd Fellows, of which he was a member for years. A wife and two children, Mrs. A. Stenbergen and W. C. Hutchison, survive. He was a good old man and will be sadly missed by his legions of friends. A number of Odd Fellows from this place attended the burial.

HUSTONVILLE FAIR.-George D. Weatherford telephoned us Saturday afternoon that those in favor of a fair at Hustonville had met and decided to hold a three days' exhibition either the last week in July or the first week in August. Walter C. Greening was elected president; J. K. Baughman, vice president; W. D. Hoeker, secretary, and J. H. Hoeker, treasurer. The directory includes the following gentlemen: F. F. Sandidge, A. B. C. Dinwiddie, J. C. Coulter, W. S. Drye, J. P. Riffe, James Frye, William Myers, T. L. Carpenter, F. M. Ware and J. W. Givens. Stock in Hustonville fairs doesn't go begging and is sought for by those who know a good thing. It could all be placed here if it were necessary, and many would be willing to pay a premium for it. Another meeting will be held next Saturday afternoon when the date will be definitely settled.

ASSASSINATED.-Just after the Bakers had been granted a change of venue to Knox county and as Tom Baker was standing by the tent in which he was imprisoned he was shot by an assassin Saturday. The ball pierced his heart and he died almost instantly in the arms of his wife, whose moans were pitiful to hear. Jim and Des Baker begged for weapons to avenge the murder of their father and brother, but of course they were not given them. The fatal shot is said to have come from the direction of Sheriff White's house, but he is not suspected of the foul deed. The soldiers surrounded the house and turned the gatling gun on it, but the fiend had made good his escape. Baker staid in jail here for nearly a year and was quite an intelligent man. He leaves a round dozen children, all boys, one of whom was jointly charged with him in the murders for which he was under indictment.

The murder was evidently carefully pre-arranged. A Winchester rifle lay on the floor of Sheriff White's house near the front window. The barrel was still warm. The chamber of the rifle was open and smoke was issuing from the exploded shell. "It's an unfortunate thing that gun was found in your home," said Col. Williams to Sheriff Beverly White after the search was over and the excitement had somewhat subsided. "Before God," cried White, "I didn't do the killing. There are any number of people who have access to my home. They pass in and out all day. I wasn't even near the house when that shot was fired."

An associated press dispatch says that Sheriff White is under arrest for the murder, but this is doubtless untrue. The soldiers broke camp at Manchester Sunday and arrived safely at Harboersville with Wiley and James Baker.

A gentleman from Clay county tells us that it is the general impression that Sid Baker killed Tom Baker at Manchester Saturday afternoon, as his hat and rifle were found in Sheriff White's house when it was searched. Sid Baker, who is a distant relative of Tom Baker, claims that the latter killed his brother while the two were logging a year ago.

HAIL.-A severe hail storm did great damage in the Preachersville section Friday night. It almost ruined 60 acres of wheat for J. J. Thompson, 25 acres for A. J. Thompson, while the corn crops of those gentlemen and W. P. Grimes were badly damaged. Hail stones almost as large as hen eggs fell and a great deal of window glass was broken.

AT the meeting of the Commercial Club Friday evening, the question of a graded school here was discussed and letters read from towns, which have them, showing their great value as a population drawer. A committee was appointed to confer with the freight manager of the Cincinnati Southern, who is to meet it at McKinney in the near future.

HIGHLAND.-Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Watts, of Harrison, Tenn., are visiting her sister, Mrs. Hen Baugh. Mrs. Bob Cook, of Conway, is at her father, John Baugh's. Mr. Sam Light, of Stansbury, Mo., is on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. John Baugh. Andrew Young, son of John Young, died Friday of typhoid fever and was buried Saturday at the M. E. Church.

WHAT the Goebel and Stone men do here Saturday will have to be done by main strength and awkwardness. They have none of the so-called leaders, who are all tearing their shirts for Hardin. It therefore behooves those who are opposed to Hardin to be on hand and out count them. A gentleman who has ridden over the county tells us that he believes two-thirds of the people are for Goebel. Let them prove it Saturday and stand up first, last and all the time for their favorite.

NORTH NOMINATED.-The Legislative convention was held at 2 1/2 p. m. yesterday. County Chairman J. W. Holmes presided and J. B. Paxton, was made secretary. On the roll being called the four Stanford precincts, represented as stated elsewhere, cast their votes for Mr. J. H. Miller as did Waynesburg No. 3, represented by Warren Atherton. This gave him six votes. Hustonville No. 1, J. B. Routt and B. C. Sandidge, delegates; No. 2, J. W. Givens delegate; No. 3, G. W. Carter and Sam M. Owens, delegates; Crab Orchard No. 1, W. D. Wallen and J. C. McWhorter, delegates; and No. 2, O. P. Newland and J. E. Holdam, delegates; Waynesburg No. 1, L. G. Gooch and E. B. Caldwell, delegates; and No. 2, W. L. McCarty, delegate, voted for Hon. M. F. North, giving him 12 votes and he was officially declared the nominee for representative from Lincoln county in the next Legislature.

THE Hardin men worked a trick and drew a crowd for Robert Harding by advertising that Gen. Wat Hardin would be here yesterday. They got a crowd but Harding did neither himself nor his candidate any good. In fact, if his speech had any effect at all it solidified the Goebel ranks and made his followers the more determined. We had intended when it was announced that Candidate Hardin would be here to report his speech as fully as we did Goebel's and Stone's, but when we heard several days ago that he would not be here, as doubtless he never intended to be, we thought that we could hear Bob Harding any time and so attended to pressing business instead of being present yesterday. We learn, however, that he gave as a reason for his speech that John Rhea had taken up the cudgel for Stone and that Goebel had a mouthpiece in this county, which twice-a-week spoke for him and against Hardin. Then he is said to have produced a paragraph from the INTERIOR JOURNAL to try to prove that we had charged Gen. Hardin with lying with reference to his statement that Goebel had voted for a trust, when the fact is we simply said that Mr. Goebel had so charged and that Gen. Hardin had not resented it or tried to wipe the stigma from him, nor has he done so to this good day that we are aware. Mr. Harding knows as well as we do that we made no charge at all and his effort to try to make it appear so was unworthy of him and of the friendship he has more than once expressed and which was reciprocated. Certainly we had no fight with him, but he will find us ready if he elects to take up the sword. We heard some time since that he said that he would go to this county and Garrard and see that they were carried for Hardin, but he will find here at least that his officiousness will be resented. We advise him to remain at home and continue his alleged effort to knife Judge Breckinridge for Hardin and he will discover that he is not as omnipotent as he imagines.

After Harding came John H. Miller, who read a few lines, showing that he was quite sore over his defeat and charging certain so-called cliques and sections with turning him down. Mr. Miller is all right, however. His heart is in the right place, if he does occasionally lose his head, and he won't sulk long.

Hon. M. F. North made a few remarks thanking the people for honoring him and promising to do his best to win their further approbation and his election.

Mr. Harding had so small a crowd at Hustonville last night that he wisely decided that it would be worse at Waynesburg and didn't go there today.
